

we used to get between 5-15 sales calls per week at all times of the day/night before the no call list. I felt this was an invasion of my privacy. Now we only get a few calls from companies we do business with - WHAT A RELIEF - we can eat in peace, do homework in peace and have some family time in peace. Please don't change our policy it is great the way it is.